10th CHAMPIONS FOR Children

Friday, April 5, 2024
POMME
Radnor, Pennsylvania
5:00 – 8:00 PM
TOGETHER WE RISE

It is an honor to invite you to join our 10th Champions for Children to celebrate not only our special honorees, but all the wonderful people who generously give of themselves in support of the children, teens and families we serve.

We are excited to launch the spring version of our annual fundraiser and come together before we start the busy summer season of our year-round camps. This year we will be hosting our event in a natural setting at Pomme in Radnor just outside Philadelphia on a fun Friday evening on April 5th.

The event is truly a celebration of the power of community and a means to share how grateful we are for the support of business leaders, volunteers, community partners and families that are vital to our mission and vision to uplift kids and families impacted by grief or addiction through a supportive community, fostering of interpersonal connections, and a continuum of resources to break the cycle of addiction and isolation of grief. Together we rise.

Thank you for your consideration of support so we can continue our free programming. We look forward to celebrating with you this coming April!

With gratitude,

Mary

About Eluna

Eluna is a public, 501(c)(3) non-profit with a mission to support children and families impacted by grief or addiction. Founded in 2000 in Seattle by former MLB pitcher Jamie Moyer and child advocate Karen Phelps Moyer, Eluna was originally called The Moyer Foundation. Eluna’s programs and services provide community-building camps, interpersonal connections, and a continuum of support at no cost to hundreds of thousands of people in locations across North America.

Camp Erin®

Camp Erin is the largest national bereavement program for children and families ages 6-17 who are grieving the death of a significant person in their lives. Camp Erin supports children, teens, and families through in-person and overnight sessions and online programs, all at no cost. Through a network of partnerships with grief centers, hospices, and hospitals in local communities, Camp Erin brings hope and healing to thousands of children and families each year.

Camp Mariposa®

Camp Mariposa is a year-round addiction prevention and mentoring program for youth ages 9 to 17 who have been impacted by the substance use disorder of a family member. Youth attend transformational weekend camps and participate in fun traditional camp experiences combined with educational and support sessions. Camp Mariposa provides a safe, fun and supportive environment that is critical to breaking the cycle of addiction and is offered in partnership with youth-focused organizations in communities across the country.

The Eluna Resource Center | elunanetwork.org/resources

The Eluna Resource Center offers confidential, personalized support in English and Spanish as well as a comprehensive online library of resources and referrals for children and families impacted by addiction, grief and related complex challenges. On a mission to educate, destigmatize, and equip our community with resources and tools that promote understanding the impact of grief and addiction, the Eluna Resource Center offers Community Conversations, Eluna Cares, and Personalized Support for all who seek it.

Team Jesse

Team Jesse officially joined the Eluna network in 2020 to extend outreach to military families dealing with the grief of losing a loved one and to those experiencing the loss felt when a family member is impacted by the disease of addiction. A partner of Eluna since 2012, Team Jesse was created to honor the legacy of SSG Jesse Williams who died on April 8, 2007 in, Iraq, leaving behind a young daughter, Amaya.

Gregory E. Deavens is president and chief executive officer of Independence Health Group, a national company headquartered in Philadelphia and the parent company of Independence Blue Cross.

Under his leadership, Independence is advancing equitable, whole-person health, which includes integrating physical and behavioral health care and reducing racial and economic health disparities. To drive innovation in care delivery, Independence is increasing value-based agreements with providers that pay for favorable health outcomes rather than volume and is expanding the use of technology to improve health outcomes. The organization also has focused on partnerships dedicated to reducing the cost of medications for the benefit of members and employer customers.

Mr. Deavens has been named to Modern Healthcare’s 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare and Savoy magazine’s Most Influential Black Executives in Corporate America, among other honors. He serves on the boards of several local and national health, arts, civic, and professional organizations.
Mariel Hemingway is considered an expert in health—both mental and physical — and is a longtime advocate of personal power, life balance, authenticity, joy and finding peace of mind through a devoted practice of healthy living. She’s both a committed teacher and student in this holistic concentration. In 2014 Mariel co-executive produced the Emmy-nominated Running From Crazy, a rich and evocative documentary about the Hemingway family, collaboration with Oprah Winfrey. The film premiered at the Sundance Film Festival and documents her boundless advocacy for mental health awareness, the dignity and rights of people of all circumstance and ability, and her commitment to connecting those of like mind and heart in order to optimize their lives in the best and worst of times.

Mariel is a regular keynote speaker at conferences, conventions, and on academic panels where those of like mind and heart gather to educate, engage, entertain, and to enrich each other’s experiences. She has taken her focus on mental health into the world of radio with her podcast “Out Comes the Sun.” Her most recent foray into the world of digital radio provided an opportunity for her to co-create Expansion Channel on DASH radio. She is an educator for NABA as well as One Commune. Recent health, wellness, inspirational and advocacy profiles include those in USA Today, LA Times, The Chicago Tribune, The Times of London, The Today & Dr. Oz shows, Huffington Post/AOL video sites, Vanity Fair, the New York Times, Interview, People, and USA Today Best of Magazines. In 2014, Mariel was the focus of a one-hour interview about her books with Oprah Winfrey’s on OWN’s premiere show, Super Soul Sunday.
