We invite you to view award-winning broadcast journalist Kavitha Cardoza who led our first Community Conversation on supporting children and families impacted by the disease of addiction. She was joined by Claudia Black, renowned addiction author, speaker and trainer, and a Camp Mariposa camper and family member.

"They've taken that away from camp that it's not their fault, they ARE loved, and they are not alone. There's people and resources out there and there's ways to break that family cycle without turning to drugs." - Crystal Burch, Camp Mariposa Parent
