

The COPE Foundation - Camp Erin New York City

A non-profit grief and healing organization dedicated to helping parents and families living with the loss of a child

Due to the Corona pandemic, 2020 Camp Erin dates may have changed. Please visit our Find Your Camp map for updated information.

The COPE Foundation provides healing and support to those struggling with the loss of a loved one.

The COPE Foundation offers grief resources including art therapy, peer support groups, music therapy, and Camp Erin NYC. Camp Erin NYC is held at the end of August at a beautiful summer camp in Pennsylvania.

Grief groups, facilitated by professional staff, help children ages 7-17 process and verbalize their grief with other children who share their experience.

The powerful nature of feeling understood, being part of a community and enjoying traditional camp activities has made this weekend incredibly successful and meaningful to all participants.
