The death of a loved one can be a difficult experience for children and teens. As a parent or guardian of a grieving child, you may want some guidance and support in helping your child cope with the death of a loved one.

Hospice of Santa Cruz's Grief Support Program for children and teens is open to the community and programs are provided free-of-charge.

If you would like more information, please call them at (831) 430-3000 and ask for the Grief Support Program.

Individual Counseling: A counselor can meet with your child or teen to provide support. The counseling typically incorporates art, play and other creative activities. Counseling is also available in Spanish.

Hospice of Santa Cruz is Eluna's Camp Erin Partner. They have a great resources page with grief resources translated into Spanish.
